PROFILE

I am an Information Technology student with a passion for creating innovative and user-centered digital solutions. I have experience in UI/UX design, graphic design, web development, and game development, allowing me to combine creativity with technical skills to build engaging and functional projects.

I enjoy designing intuitive user interfaces, developing responsive websites, creating visual content, and exploring game mechanics that enhance user experiences. I am a fast learner who continuously seeks opportunities to improve my skills, adapt to new technologies, and contribute to meaningful projects. My goal is to grow as a versatile developer and designer while delivering high-quality digital experiences.
